

ROYAL COURT

8th July, 1988

Before: The Bailiff, assisted by
Jurats Vint and Le Ruez

Her Majesty's Attorney General

- v -

Simon Mark Wibberley

Numerous counts of breaking and entering and larceny, illegal entry and larceny and attempted breaking and entering with intent

Advocate S.C. Nicolle for the Crown
Advocate S.A. Meiklejohn for the accused

JUDGMENT

BAILIFF: Mr Meiklejohn, you have said all you can on behalf of your client. We note what you say as regards the case of Hughes, but your client had hardly come out of prison when he started offending again, which is an aggravating factor. He has totally misused such opportunity as the Island can give him. We cannot find such mitigating factors as would entitle us to reduce the conclusions. They are accordingly granted and, Wibberley, you are sentenced to a total of two years.

Authority referred to in the judgment:-

A.G. -v- Hughes J.J. 27th July, 1980 - unreported.

Other authorities referred to:-

Thomas' Principles of Sentencing (2nd edition) at p.149 re. "Burglary".

A.G. -v- Aubin J.J. 14th May, 1987, as yet unreported.

A.G. -v- O'Driscoll J.J. 27th May, 1988.

A.G. -v- Manby, Whiteman and Stopher J.J. 1st July, 1988, as yet unreported.
