

ROYAL COURT

12th October, 1990

148.

Before: The Deputy Bailiff, and Jurats Gruchy and Vibert

Between:	H.M. Attorney General	Representor
And:	Glendale Hotel (Holdings) Limited	First Respondent
And:	David Eves	Second Respondent
And:	Helga Maria Eves, née Bucher	Third Respondent

---

In the matter of the second representation of
Her Majesty's Attorney General alleging breaches of the interim injunction contained in the first representation.

DEPUTY BAILIFF: At long last the Court has received an apology. Neither yesterday nor earlier today was there the slightest note of regret or apology. Now, Mr. Sinel has apologised deeply and that alone saves Mr. and Mrs. Eves from being committed to prison tonight.

This was a blatant breach of an injunction of the most serious kind - one obtained by the Attorney General to enforce the criminal law.

In the view of the Court the breach was aggravated by the conduct of Mr. and Mrs. Eves last night and this morning.

The Court therefore applies the following sanctions:-

Glendale Hotel (Holdings) Ltd is fined £1,000.

Mr. David Eves is fined £1,000 or in default of payment will serve two months' imprisonment.

Mrs. Helga Eves is fined £1,000 or in default of payment will serve two months' imprisonment.

All three parties will have one week to pay.
