Relief in respect of losses in business set up after 6th April 1923.

A.D. 1927. which was set up and commenced after the sixth day of April, nineteen hundred and twenty-three, proves—

- (a) that in any year earlier than the year 1926–27, or than the year which would under the provisions of section thirty-four of the Finance Act, 1926, be taken to be the year preceding the year 1927–28, he sustained a loss (to be computed in like manner as profits or gains under the Rules applicable to Cases I and II of Schedule D) in the trade, profession or vocation; and
- (b) that that loss would, if Part IV of the Finance Act, 1926, had not passed, have been taken into account in the period upon the average of which the profits or gains of the trade, profession or vocation would have been calculated for the purposes of the assessment either for the year 1927–28 or for both the said years 1927–28 and 1928–29, he may claim that an amount equal to one-third of that loss shall, as far as may be and subject to the provisions of this section, be deducted

- (i) from the amount on which he is assessed in respect of the profits or gains of the trade, profession or vocation for the year 1927–28, or
- (ii) both from that amount and from the amount on which he is so assessed for the year 1928–29, if the loss would have been taken into account in the period upon the average of which the profits or gains of the trade, profession or vocation would have been calculated for the purpose of the assessment for that last-mentioned year :

Provided that the amount of the deduction to be allowed to any person under this section in respect of the assessment for either of the said years shall not be in excess of the amount by which the aggregate amount of the assessments made on him in respect of the trade, profession or vocation for the period from the first setting up thereof until the end of that year (as reduced by any deduction under this section or by any deduction allowed under Rule 13 of the Rules applicable to Cases I and II of Schedule D on account of losses arising in the trade) is greater than the amount by which his aggregate profits and gains from the trade, profession or vocation for the said period exceeds the aggregate amount of his losses therefrom during that period, after deducting from those losses any loss or portion of a loss which has been or can be carried forward under section thirty-three of the Finance Act, 1926, and the amount of any loss or losses in respect of which relief is given under section thirty-four of the Income Tax Act, 1918.

(2) In so far as relief in respect of any loss is given to any person under this section, he shall not be entitled to claim relief in respect of that loss under any other provision of the Income Tax Acts.

(3) For the purpose of the application of this section to any person, the expressions "the amount" "on which he is assessed in respect of the profits" "or gains" and "the aggregate amount of the assessments made on him" shall in respect of any year or period be taken to mean the amount or the aggregate of the amounts respectively which that person would be required under the Income Tax Acts to include in respect of the profits of the trade, profession, or vocation in his return or returns of total income for that year or period if the return or returns were made before taking into account any adjustment under section thirty-four of the Income Tax Act, 1918, or any deduction or set off under section thirty-three of the Finance Act, 1926, in respect of a loss.

29.—(1) If, where a business carried on by any individual or by any individuals in partnership has, whether before or after the passing of this Act, been transferred to a company in consideration solely or mainly of the allotment of shares of the company to that individual or those individuals, the total income as computed for the purposes of income tax of any individual to whom or to whose nominee or nominees shares have been so allotted for any year of assessment throughout which he is the beneficial owner of the shares and throughout which the company carries on the business, includes any income derived by him from the company, whether by way of dividends on those shares or otherwise, the provisions of section thirty-three of the Finance Act, 1926, shall apply as if the income so derived were profits and gains

Relief in respect of losses where business is transferred to a company.

A.D. 1927. on which that individual was assessed under Schedule D in respect of that business for that year:

Provided that—

- (i) where under the said section thirty-three, as applied by this section, a loss falls to be deducted from or set off against any such income for any year of assessment, the deduction or set off shall be made in the first place against that part, if any, of the income in respect of which the individual has been or is liable to be assessed to tax for that year; and
- (ii) where any loss, or any part of a loss, falls to be deducted from or set off against any part of the income from which tax was deductible by the company, the individual shall on giving notice in writing to the surveyor not later than twelve months after the end of the year of assessment to which the claim relates, be entitled to claim an appropriate repayment of tax, and the provisions of the Income Tax Acts relating to claims for repayment of tax in respect of any allowance or deduction shall, subject to any necessary modification, apply to claims for repayment under this section.

(2) This section in its application to the year of assessment in which a business is transferred as aforesaid shall have effect as if for the reference to the year of assessment throughout which the individual is the beneficial owner of the shares and throughout which the company carries on business there were substituted a reference to the period from the date of transfer to the fifth day of April next following.

30.—(1) Where by virtue of section eighty-four of the Income Tax Act, 1918 (which empowers the Commissioners of Inland Revenue to appoint collectors in certain cases), the power to appoint a collector for any area has become vested in the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, those Commissioners shall appoint a collector for that area to hold office during their will and pleasure and assign to him such remuneration as the Treasury may direct, and, notwithstanding any alteration of any parish

for the purposes of poor law administration, may continue to appoint a collector for that area, and, so long as they so continue, the parish or parishes forming that area shall remain a parish or parishes for which tax is to be separately assessed. A.D. 1927.

(2) Where by virtue of section eighty of the Income Tax Act, 1918, the General Commissioners have power to appoint a collector for any area those Commissioners shall appoint a collector for that area to hold office during their will and pleasure, and subsection (1) of that section shall have effect as if for the words “in the month of April in every year” there were substituted the words “within a month from the occurrence of a vacancy for a collector,” and subsection (1) of section eighty-four of the Income Tax Act, 1918, shall have effect as if—

- (a) the words “for any year of assessment” were omitted;
- (b) for the words “on or before the thirty-first day of May” there were substituted the words “within two months after the date at which a vacancy has occurred”;
- (c) the words “for that year and for every subsequent year” were omitted.

Provisions relating to Super-tax.

31.—(1) Subsection (1) of section twenty-one of the Finance Act, 1922, shall have effect as if at the end thereof there were added as a new paragraph the following:— Amendment of 12 & 13
Geo. 5.
c. 17. s. 21.

“For the purpose of this subsection any such sum as is hereinafter described shall be regarded as income available for distribution among the members of the company and not as having been applied or being applicable to the current requirements of the company’s business or to such other requirements as may be necessary or advisable for the maintenance and development of that business, that is to say:—

- (a) Any sum expended or applied, or intended to be expended or applied, out of the income of the company, otherwise than in pursuance of an obligation entered into by the company before the fourth day of August, nineteen hundred and fourteen—

(i) in or towards payment for the business, undertaking or property which the company was formed to acquire or which was the first business, undertaking or property of a substantial character in fact acquired by the company; or

(ii) in redemption or repayment of any share or loan capital or debt (including any premium on such share or loan capital or debt) issued or incurred in or towards payment for any such business, undertaking or property, or issued or incurred for the purpose of raising money applied or to be applied in or towards payment therefor; or

(iii) in meeting any obligations of the company in respect of the acquisition of any such business, undertaking or property:

(b) Any sum expended or applied, or intended to be expended or applied, in pursuance or in consequence of any fictitious or artificial transaction:”

Provided that the addition to the said section twenty-one of the foregoing new paragraph shall not operate so as to make the said section apply as respects any company unless it appears to the Special Commissioners, not only that income of the company has been or is to be expended or applied for one or more of the purposes mentioned in the said paragraph, but also that the company has not in fact distributed a reasonable part of its actual income in such a manner as to render the amount distributed liable to be included in the statements to be made by the members of the company of their total income for the purposes of super tax.

(2) Subsection (1) of the said section twenty-one shall have effect as if after the words “apportioned among the members,” there were inserted the words “and super-tax shall be assessed and charged under the provisions of this section in respect of the sum so

“ apportioned after deducting in the case of each member any amount which has been distributed to him by the company in respect of the said year or period in such manner that the amount distributed falls to be included in the statement of total income to be made by that member for the purposes of super-tax.”

A.D. 1927.

(3) In subsection (6) of the said section twenty-one, for the words from the beginning thereof down to and including the words “beneficial owner of shares in the company” there shall be substituted the following:—

“This section shall apply to any company which is under the control of not more than five persons and which is not a subsidiary company or a company in which the public are substantially interested.

For the purpose of this subsection—

A company shall be deemed to be a subsidiary company if, by reason of the beneficial ownership of shares therein, the control of the company is in the hands of a company not being a company to which the provisions of this section apply, or of two or more companies none of which is a company to which those provisions apply;

A company shall be deemed to be a company in which the public are substantially interested if shares of the company (not being shares entitled to a fixed rate of dividend, whether with or without a further right to participate in profits) carrying not less than twenty-five per cent. of the voting power have been allotted unconditionally to, or acquired unconditionally by, and are at the end of the year or other period for which the accounts of the company have been made up as aforesaid beneficially held by, the public (not including a company to which the provisions of this section apply) and any such shares have in the course of such year or other period been the subject of dealings on a stock exchange in the United Kingdom and the shares have been quoted in the official list of such a stock exchange.

A.D. 1927.

The expression 'company' means a company within the meaning of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908."

8 Edw. 7.
c. 69.

(4) Where an order has been made or a resolution passed for the winding-up of a company to which the said section twenty-one applies, the income of the company for the period from the end of the last year or other period for which accounts of the company have been made up to the date of the order or resolution for winding up shall, for the purposes of the said section, be deemed to be income of that period available for distribution to the members of the company, and, as respects that period and the next preceding year or other preceding period or periods ending within that next preceding year for which accounts have been made up, the said section shall apply as if the words "within a reasonable time" in subsection (1) of the said section were omitted therefrom.

(5) Any notice required under the provisions of the said section twenty-one to be served upon a company may, where the company is in liquidation, be served upon the liquidator of the company, and the liquidator shall be responsible for doing all matters or things required to be done by or on behalf of the company, and the liquidator shall be responsible for the due payment of any super-tax payable by or recoverable from the company under the provisions of the said section.

(6) The income apportioned to a member of a company for the period from the end of the last year or other period for which accounts have been made up to the date of the order or resolution for winding up shall, for the purposes of super-tax, be deemed to have been received by him on the date of that order or resolution.

(7) The following shall be substituted for paragraph 5 of the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 1922 :—

"5.—(a) Where the Special Commissioners have—

(i) issued a notice requiring any company to furnish them with particulars under paragraph 4 of this schedule as respects any year or other period; or

(ii) given a direction under subsection (1) of section twenty-one of this Act as respects any year or other period in relation to any company to which no such notice has been issued as respects that year or period;

the directors of the company, if they are of opinion that there has not been and will not be any avoidance of the payment of super-tax through failure to distribute to the members of the company a reasonable part of its income for that year or period, may make a statutory declaration to that effect stating the facts and circumstances upon which their opinion is based ;

(b) In any case where such a statutory declaration as aforesaid is sent to the Special Commissioners within twenty-eight days of the issue of such a notice or the giving of such a direction as aforesaid the Special Commissioners shall not, unless they see reason to the contrary, take any further action in the matter ;

(c) If in any such case the Commissioners see reason to the contrary they shall send to the Board of Referees a certificate to that effect, together with the said statutory declaration, and shall at the same time transmit a copy of the certificate and of the statutory declaration to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue ;

(d) The Commissioners of Inland Revenue may at any time within twenty-eight days after receiving the copy of the certificate and the copy of the statutory declaration submit to the Board of Referees a counter-statement with reference to the matter ;

(e) The Board of Referees shall in any such case take into consideration the declaration, and the certificate, and the counter-statement, if any, and shall determine whether there is or is not a primâ facie case for proceeding in the matter ;

(f) The determination of the Board of Referees under this paragraph shall be final and conclusive, and, where the Board of Referees determines that there is a primâ facie case for proceeding, the notice or direction aforesaid shall have effect as if it had been issued or given on the date on which notice of the determination of the Board is given to the company."

(8) The following shall be substituted for paragraph 9 of the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 1922—

"9. The income apportioned to a member of a company so far as assessable and chargeable to super-tax under section twenty-one of this Act shall for the purposes of that tax be deemed to have been received by him on the date to which the accounts of the company for the year or period were made up or, if an application in that behalf is made by the company to the Special Commissioners at any time within the period limited by this Schedule for giving notice of appeal against the direction to the Special Commissioners, on such date as those Commissioners determine to be just, having regard to the dates on which distributions of income have been made by the company, and so as to avoid, as far as possible, the inclusion for the purposes of super-tax for any year of income referable to more than one year."

Application of 12 & 13 Geo. 5. c. 17. s. 21 to interconnected companies.

32.—(1) Where a member of a company (in this section referred to as "the first company"), the income of which for any year or period has been deemed to be the income of its members and has been the subject of an apportionment (in this section referred to as "the original apportionment") under section twenty-one of the Finance Act, 1922, is itself a company (in this section referred to as "the second company") to which the provisions of that section apply, the excess of the amount so apportioned to the second company over the amount, if any, which has been received by the second company out of the income as aforesaid of the first company in such manner as would, in the case of an individual, render the amount so received liable to be included in the statement of his income for the purposes of super-tax, shall for the purposes of the said section be deemed to be income of the members of the second company and shall be apportioned among them in accordance with their respective interests in that company, and the provisions of the said section shall, with any necessary modifications, apply accordingly. A.D. 1927.

(2) The second company shall, on being required by notice in writing to that effect given to it by the Special Commissioners, furnish the Commissioners with a statement showing the names and addresses and particulars of the respective interests of all its members as on the last day of the year or other period the income of which formed the subject of the original apportionment, and the income apportioned as aforesaid to the members of the second company shall, for the purposes of super-tax, be deemed to have been received by those members on the date on which the income apportioned as aforesaid to the members of the first company is deemed to have been received by them.

(3) Any super-tax chargeable by reference to the provisions of the said section twenty-one in respect of the amount of the income of the first company apportioned to any member of the second company shall be assessed upon that member in the name of the first company, and shall, subject to the provisions of the said section as to payment by the member, be payable by the first company, and the provisions of the said section as to the assessment, collection and recovery of super-tax chargeable in respect of the income of a company apportioned to any member thereof shall, with any necessary modifications, apply accordingly.

(4) Where a member of any such second company as aforesaid is itself a company to which the said section twenty-one applies, the income apportioned to it under the foregoing provisions of this section shall in turn be deemed to be the income of its members and apportioned to them, for purposes of assessment to super-tax, in accordance with their respective interests, and so on successively where any member to whom income of a company has been apportioned is itself a company to which the said section applies, so that successive apportionments shall in like manner be made until the entire amount of the income which was apportioned under the provisions of this section among the members of the second company has been apportioned to persons other than a company to which the said section applies, and the said section shall with any necessary modifications apply to such

A.D. 1927. successive apportionments and to the furnishing of statements and to the assessment, collection and recovery of super-tax in respect of income apportioned thereunder, and, in particular, the date on which any such income is to be deemed to have been received by the member to whom it is apportioned shall be the date mentioned in subsection (2) of this section, and any super-tax which is chargeable in respect of income apportioned to a member being an individual shall be assessed and charged upon that member in the name of the first company.

Provisions for preventing avoidance of super-tax
by sales cum dividend, &c.

33.—(1) Any individual upon whom notice is served by the Special Commissioners requiring him to furnish a statement of and particulars relating to any assets in which, at any time during the period specified in the notice, he has had any beneficial interest, and in respect of which, within such period, either no income was received by him, or the income received by him was less than the sum to which the income would have amounted, if the income from such assets had accrued from day to day and been apportioned accordingly, shall, whether an assessment to super-tax in respect of his total income has or has not been made for the relevant year or years of assessment, furnish such a statement and such particulars in the form and within the time (not being less than twenty-eight days) required by the notice.

(2) The Special Commissioners may serve further notices whenever they consider it necessary for the purposes of this section until complete particulars have been furnished to their satisfaction.

(3) If it appears to the Special Commissioners by reference to all the circumstances in relation to the assets of any such individual (including circumstances with respect to sales, purchases, dealings, contracts, arrangements, transfers, or any other transactions relating to such assets) that the individual has thereby avoided or would avoid more than ten per cent. of the amount of the super-tax for any year which would have been payable in his case if the income from those assets had been deemed to accrue from day to day and had been apportioned accordingly and the income so deemed to have been apportioned to him had been treated as part of his total income from all sources for the purposes of super-tax, then those assets shall be deemed to be assets to which subsection (4) of this section applies. A.D. 1927.

(4) For the purposes of assessment to super-tax in the case of any such individual, the income from any assets to which this subsection applies shall be deemed to accrue from day to day, and in the case of the sale or transfer of any such assets by or to him shall be deemed to have been received as and when it is deemed to have accrued:

Provided that an individual shall not be liable to be assessed to super-tax under this section in respect of any such income if he proves to the satisfaction of the Special Commissioners that the avoidance of super-tax was exceptional and not systematic, and that there was not in his case in any of the three next preceding years any such avoidance of super-tax as is described in the provisions of the last preceding subsection.

(5) If any individual fails to furnish any statement or particulars required under this section, or if the Special Commissioners are not satisfied with any statement or particulars furnished under this section, they may make an estimate of the amount of the income which, under the foregoing provisions of this section, is to be deemed to form part of his total income for the purposes of super-tax.

(6) If any individual without reasonable excuse fails to furnish any statement or particulars required under this section, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds, and, after judgment has been given for that penalty, to a further penalty of the like amount for every day during which the failure continues.

(7) For the purposes of this section, the expression "assets" means—

- (a) stocks or securities entitled to interest or dividend at a fixed rate only, not being stocks or securities the interest or dividend on which is dependent on the earnings of a company; and
- (b) any other stocks or securities and any shares, if transactions in relation thereto have been effected by the individual otherwise than through a stock exchange in the United Kingdom and by a transfer on which duty has been paid at the rate of one pound per cent. under the heading "Conveyance or Transfer on Sale" in the First Schedule to the Stamp Act, 1891.

Relief from super-tax where income attributable to a period exceeding a year is received in a year.

34. If, on an application made by any individual for the purpose, either at the time of making his return for the purposes of super-tax for any year or within the time limited for appealing against the assessment upon him to super-tax for that year, the applicant proves to the satisfaction of the Special Commissioners—

- (a) that, as respects any assets, in consequence of the operation of the provisions of the Income Tax Acts which require that for purposes of super-tax any income which is chargeable with income tax by way of deduction shall be deemed to be income of the year in which it is receivable, the income from those assets, as estimated for the purposes of super-tax for that year, represents more than the income which would be attributable to a period of one full year if the income were deemed to have accrued from day to day ; and
- (b) that, in consequence, the amount of super-tax payable by him for that year exceeds by more than five per cent. the amount of the super-tax which would have been payable by him for that year if the amount of his income from those assets had not exceeded the amount which would be attributable to a period of one full year if the income from those assets were deemed to have accrued from day to day ;

the Special Commissioners shall charge him to super-tax, or adjust his liability to super-tax, for that year and any succeeding year so as to give such relief as may be just, having regard to all the circumstances and in particular to the amount of any liability or additional liability to super-tax which would have arisen for any preceding year or years if—

- (i) the income from such assets as aforesaid were deemed to have accrued from day to day and to have been apportioned accordingly ; and

- (ii) the income so deemed to have been apportioned to him had been treated as part of his total income for the purposes of super-tax. A.D. 1927.

35. If, on an application made by any individual, either at the time of making his return for the purposes of super-tax for any year or within the time limited for appealing against the assessment upon him to super-tax for that year, the applicant proves to the satisfaction of the Special Commissioners that, in consequence of the sale or transfer to him of any assets, the amount of super-tax payable by him for that year exceeds by more than ten per cent. the amount of the super-tax which would have been payable by him for that year if the income from those assets and from any assets sold or transferred by him were deemed to have accrued from day to day, then, for the purposes of any assessment to super-tax in the case of that individual for that year, the income from all such assets as aforesaid shall be deemed to have accrued from day to day and to have been received by him as and when it is deemed to have accrued.

Relief from super-tax in case of purchases cum dividend.

36.—(1) Any income arising in respect of any assets which for any of the purposes of the last three preceding sections of this Act is deemed to have accrued from day to day or which is to be computed as if it were income that accrued from day to day shall—

Supplemental provisions.

- (a) if payable in respect of any stated period, be deemed to have accrued from day to day during that period; and
- (b) if not payable in respect of any stated period, be deemed to have accrued from day to day during the period of twelve months next preceding the date on which that income was declared payable, or during the period between the last previous declaration of a dividend, (not being a dividend expressed to be an interim dividend in respect of a stated period) payment of interest, or other yield or produce of such asset and the date aforesaid, whichever period is less.

(2) The provisions of the Income Tax Acts relating to appeals against assessments to super-tax, including the provisions relating to the statement of a case for the

A.D. 1927. opinion of the High Court on a point of law, shall, with --- any necessary modifications, apply for the purposes of the last three preceding sections of this Act.

Application of last six sections.

37. The provisions of the last six preceding sections of this Act shall apply for the purposes of assessment to super-tax for the year 1928-29.

PART III.

AMENDMENT WITH RESPECT TO METHOD OF CHARGING ADDITIONAL INCOME TAX ON HIGHER INCOME, BASIS OF ASSESSMENT UNDER SCHEDULE E., &C.

Charge of income tax
 at standard rate and at higher rates in respect of income above
 amount.

38.—(1) Income tax for the year 1928-29 and every subsequent year shall, instead of being charged at a single rate, be charged at a standard rate and, in the case of an individual whose total income from all sources exceeds a stated amount, at a rate or rates exceeding the standard rate in respect of any part or parts of his income in excess of that amount, and where income tax is so charged for any year the following provisions shall have effect, subject to the other provisions of this Part of this Act—

- (a) all such enactments relating to income tax as were in force immediately before the commencement of this Part of this Act shall, in so far as they relate to income tax (not including super-tax) have effect as if income tax were charged for that year at the standard rate only, and in the case of an individual whose total income exceeds the stated amount, the amount of the income tax so charged shall, so far as that income tax is borne by him in respect of his income, be deemed to be an instalment at the standard rate of the amount of income tax for which he is chargeable for that year;
- (b) where the amount of income tax payable by an individual for that year in respect of his total income is greater than the amount which would have been payable by him in respect thereof if income tax had been chargeable at the standard rate only, the difference between those two amounts (in this Part of this Act referred to as

and super-tax shall not be charged for the year 1929–30 or any subsequent year.

(2) The expression “total income” in relation to any person means the total income of that person from all sources estimated, as the case may be, either in accordance with the provisions of the Income Tax Acts as they apply to income tax chargeable at the standard rate or in accordance with those provisions as they apply to sur-tax.

39.—(1) Such of the provisions of the Income Tax Acts as provide that income tax may be deducted from any payment at the rate or rates of tax in force during the period through which the payment was accruing due, or that there may be deducted from any dividend the tax appropriate thereto, or that a proportionate deduction of the tax charged shall be allowed by any person out of any produce or value payable to him, shall have effect as if they provided that tax may be deducted or shall be allowed at the standard rate for the year in which the amount payable becomes due : Provisions with respect to income tax chargeable by way of deduction.

Provided that this subsection shall not—

- (a) apply to the deduction to be made under Rule 1 of No. VIII. in Schedule A.; or
- (b) affect the first proviso to Rule 4 of the said No. VIII. relating to deductions in Scotland.

(2) In estimating under the Income Tax Acts the total income of any person, any income which is chargeable with income tax by way of deduction at the standard rate in force for any year shall be deemed to be income of that year, and any deductions which are allowable on account of sums payable under deduction of income tax at the standard rate in force for any year out of the property or profits of that person shall be allowed as deductions in respect of that year, notwithstanding that the income or sums, as the case may be, accrued or will accrue in whole or in part before or after that year.

A.D. 1927.

(3) Where a person is required to be assessed and charged with income tax in respect of any property, profits or gains out of which he makes any payment in respect of any annual interest, annuity or other annual sum, or any royalty or other sum in respect of the user of a patent, he shall, in respect of so much of the property, profits or gains as is equal to the said payment and may be deducted in computing his total income, be charged at the standard rate only.

Substitution of reliefs by way of deductions from tax for reliefs by way of deductions from assessable income, &c.

40.—(1) The enactments set out in Part I of the Fifth Schedule to this Act in so far as they provide for relief from income tax either by means of a deduction from assessable income or from the amount of earned income or from the amount of total income, shall, subject to the amendments specified in the third column of the said Part I, have effect as if they provided for relief from income tax by means of a deduction from the amount of income tax with which any individual is chargeable equal to tax at the standard rate on the amount of the deduction from income to which he would have been entitled under the said provisions :

Provided that the amount of any deduction under this subsection shall be subject to such adjustment as may be proper in any case where relief is given in respect of Dominion income tax.

(2) Every individual shall, in substitution for the relief under section twenty-three of the Finance Act, 1920, be entitled to have the amount of the income tax which remains chargeable on him in respect of his total income after there has been made any deduction of tax to which he is entitled under subsection (1) of this section reduced by a further deduction equal to one-half of the amount so remaining chargeable or equal to one-half the tax at the standard rate on two hundred and twenty-five pounds, whichever is the less :

Provided that, where an individual has received relief from United Kingdom income tax in respect of Dominion income tax, the deduction to be made under this subsection shall not be less than it would have been if no such relief had been given, but nothing in this subsection shall affect any adjustment required to be made under subsection (3) of section twenty-seven of the Finance Act, 1920 (which provides for an adjustment where relief in respect of Dominion income tax has been allowed in respect of any part of the income of any individual at a rate greater than the rate appropriate to his case). A.D. 1927.

(3) Where under the provisions of the Income Tax Acts an individual is entitled to claim relief from income tax (other than relief in respect of life insurance premiums), by repayment or otherwise, in respect of any amount which is paid or borne by him out of his income or which is allowable or may be deducted therefrom, or in respect of any reduction of an assessment relating to his income or any part thereof, or in respect of any adjustment or set off with regard to a loss, and claims that relief for any year of assessment, any relief granted shall not extend so as to make the total income tax paid or payable by that individual for that year less than it would have been if the amount in respect of which relief is claimed had been deducted in computing his total income for that year and the amount of any other deductions or reliefs to which he is entitled for that year had been determined accordingly.

(4) Any reference in any provision of the Income Tax Acts to any allowance or deduction which is replaced by a relief under this section shall be construed as a reference to such last-mentioned relief.

(5) For the purpose of charging sur-tax, there shall be deducted from the total income of an individual in the service of the Crown abroad, any such sum as the Treasury may allow for expenses which, in their opinion,

- (b) The income of the husband and wife shall be treated as one in estimating total income for the purposes of sur-tax, and the amount of sur-tax payable in respect of the total income shall be divided between the husband and wife in proportion to the amounts of their respective incomes and the total amount payable shall not be less than it would have been if an application had not been made under this section.

The Special Commissioners may require returns to be made at any time for the purpose of this subsection.

(10) Subject to the provisions of this Part of this Act, all the provisions of the Income Tax Acts which are in force as from the date of the commencement of this Part of this Act (other than Part II of the Income Tax Act, 1918), shall, in so far as they relate to super-tax or to any matter or thing touching super-tax, continue to have effect and be construed as relating also to sur-tax and to any similar matter or thing touching sur-tax, and as if, in the case of any individual liable to sur-tax, a return which he has been required to make under subsection (1) of the next following section of this Act were a return which he had been required to make of his total income for the purposes of super-tax.

43.—(1) The provisions of the Income Tax Acts which direct that persons shall prepare and deliver statements of profits or gains shall be extended so as to require any individual upon whom a particular notice is served for that purpose to prepare and deliver within the time limited by such notice a true and correct return in the prescribed form of all the sources of his income and of the amount derived from each source for the year preceding the year of assessment, computed in accordance with the provisions of the Income Tax Acts, as amended by this Act:

(3) Any such lists, declarations, statements and returns as are referred to in subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall be in such form as the Commissioners of Inland Revenue shall prescribe, and in prescribing forms under this subsection the Commissioners shall have regard to the desirability of securing, as far as may be possible, that no person shall be required to make more than one return annually of the sources of his income and the amounts derived therefrom.

(4) Subject to the provisions contained in this section, all the provisions of the Income Tax Acts (including the provisions of any Regulations made under those Acts) relating to the delivery of lists, declarations, statements and returns to the assessor (including the provisions relating to penalties) shall, with any necessary modifications, apply to lists, declarations, statements and returns required by this section to be delivered to the surveyor and any such lists, declarations, statements and returns shall be made available to the General, Additional or Special Commissioners and their respective clerks, and, whenever necessary, to the assessors for the preparation and making of assessments.

(3) If any person fails to make any such return when so required or if the Special Commissioners are not satisfied with any return made by him, they may make an assessment of sur-tax according to the best of their judgment, and if any person, without reasonable excuse, fails to make any such return as aforesaid or give any notice required by subsection (1) of this section, he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds, and after judgment has been given for that penalty, to a further penalty of the like amount for every day during which the default continues.

(4) Notwithstanding anything in this Part of this Act, section one hundred and thirty-two of the Income Tax Act, 1918 (which contains provisions against fraudulent practices) shall apply for the purposes of sur-tax as it applies for purposes of income tax at the standard rate, subject to the modification that for the words "the general commissioners for the division in which he has been charged, or if he has not been charged, then for any division in which he is chargeable" there shall be substituted the words "the Special Commissioners."

(7) Where any person has ceased to hold an office or employment under a railway company or has ceased to be entitled to any pension paid by a railway company, such part of any tax assessed and charged upon the company under Rule 7 of the Rules applicable to Schedule E in respect of that office, employment or pension as cannot be deducted out of emoluments shall be collected and levied from that person or from his executors or administrators, as the case may be, as if he or they had been chargeable and charged with the said tax.

- (b) that the company (in this section referred to as “the transferee company”) is to be registered or has been incorporated or has increased its capital with a view to the acquisition either of the undertaking of, or of not less than ninety per cent. of the issued share capital of, any particular existing company; A.D. 1927. —

- (c) that the consideration for the acquisition (except such part thereof as consists in the transfer to or discharge by the transferee company of liabilities of the existing company) consists as to not less than ninety per cent. thereof—

Provided that—

(a) no such instrument shall be deemed to be duly stamped unless either it is stamped with the duty to which it would but for this section be liable or it has in accordance with the provisions of section twelve of the Stamp Act, 1891, been stamped with a particular stamp denoting either that it is not chargeable with any duty or that it is duly stamped; and

(b) in the case of an instrument made for the purposes of or in connection with a transfer to a company within the meaning of the Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908, the provisions of paragraph (B) of this subsection shall not apply unless the instrument is either—

(i) executed within a period of twelve months from the date of the registration of the transferee company or the date of the resolution for the increase of the nominal share capital of the transferee company, as the case may be; or

(ii) made for the purpose of effecting a conveyance or transfer in pursuance of an agreement which has been filed, or particulars of which have been filed, with the registrar of companies within the said period of twelve months.

(2) For the purposes of a claim for exemption under paragraph (B) of subsection (1) of this section, a company which has, in connection with a scheme of reconstruction or amalgamation, issued any unissued share capital shall be treated as if it had increased its nominal share capital.

(3) A company shall not be deemed to be a particular existing company within the meaning of this section unless it is provided by the memorandum of association of, or the letters patent or Act incorporating, the transferee company that one of the objects for which the company is established is the acquisition of the undertaking of, or shares in, the existing company, or unless it appears from the resolution, Act or other authority for the increase of the capital of the transferee company that the increase is authorised for the purpose of acquiring the undertaking of, or shares in, the existing company.

(4) In a case where the undertakings of or shares in two or more companies are to be acquired, the amount of the reduction to be allowed under this section in respect of the stamp duty chargeable in respect of the nominal share capital or the increase of the capital of a company shall be computed separately in relation to each of those companies.

(5) Where a claim is made for exemption under this section, the Commissioners of Inland Revenue may require the delivery to them of a statutory declaration in such form as they may direct, made in England by a solicitor of the Supreme Court or in Scotland by an enrolled law agent, and of such further evidence, if any, as the Commissioners may reasonably require.

(6) If—

- (a) where any claim for exemption from duty under this section has been allowed, it is subsequently found that any declaration or other evidence furnished in support of the claim was untrue in any material particular, or that the conditions specified in subsection (1) of this section are not fulfilled in the reconstruction or amalgamation as actually carried out; or
- (b) where shares in the transferee company have been issued to the existing company in consideration of the acquisition, the existing company within a period of two years from the date, as the case may be, of the registration or incorporation, or of the authority for the increase of the capital, of the transferee company ceases, otherwise than in consequence of reconstruction, amalgamation or liquidation, to be the beneficial owner of the shares so issued to it; or

period of two years from the date of its registration or incorporation or of the authority for the increase of its capital, as the case may be, ceases, otherwise than in consequence of reconstruction, amalgamation or liquidation, to be the beneficial owner of the shares so acquired; the exemption shall be deemed not to have been allowed, and an amount equal to the duty remitted shall become payable forthwith, and shall be recoverable from the transferee company as a debt due to His Majesty, together with interest thereon at the rate of five per cent. per annum in the case of duty remitted under paragraph (A) of subsection (1) of this section from the date of the registration or incorporation of the transferee company or the increase of its capital, as the case may be, and in the case of duty remitted under paragraph (B) of the said subsection from the date on which it would have become chargeable if this Act had not passed.

(7) If in the case of any scheme of reconstruction or amalgamation the Commissioners of Inland Revenue are satisfied that at the proper time for making a claim for exemption from duty under subsection (1) of this section there were in existence all the necessary conditions for such exemption other than the condition that not less than ninety per cent. of the issued share capital of the existing company would be acquired by the transferee company, the Commissioners may, if it is proved to their satisfaction that not less than ninety per cent. of the issued capital of the existing company has under the scheme been acquired within a period of six months from the earlier of the two following dates, that is to say—

- (a) the last day of the period of one month after the first allotment of shares made for the purposes of the acquisition; or
- (b) the date on which an invitation was issued to the shareholders of the existing company to accept shares in the transferee company; and on production of the instruments on which the duty paid has been impressed, direct repayment to be made of such an amount of duty as would have been remitted if the said condition had been originally fulfilled. A.D. 1927.
