4 How does a person who qualifies for an employment allowance receive it?

- (1) Her Majesty’s Revenue and Customs (“HMRC”) must (from time to time) make such arrangements as HMRC consider appropriate for persons who qualify for an employment allowance for a tax year to receive it by making deductions from qualifying payments which they are required to make under regulations made under paragraph 6 of Schedule 1 to SSCBA 1992 or SSCB(NI)A 1992 (regulations combining collection of contributions with tax).
- (2) In this section “qualifying payment”, in relation to a person who qualifies for an employment allowance for a tax year, means a payment in respect of any of the person’s liabilities mentioned in section 1(1)(b) which are not excluded liabilities (see section 2).
- (3) If under HMRC’s arrangements a person is permitted to make a deduction from a qualifying payment, the person must make the deduction and must make it before any other deductions which the person is permitted to make from the payment under any other legislation.
- (4) HMRC’s arrangements may (in particular)—
 - (a) require deductions to be made at the earliest opportunity in a tax year;
 - (b) provide that deductions may not be made in specified cases;
 - (c) place limits on the amounts of deductions;
 - (d) provide that a person is not permitted to make deductions unless the person has first given notice to HMRC in such form and manner, and containing such information, as HMRC may require.
- (5) Subsections (6) to (8) apply in relation to a person who qualifies for an employment allowance for a tax year if the person has not deducted under this section the full amount of the employment allowance by the end of the month of April in which the tax year ends.
- (6) The person may apply to HMRC for a repayment, up to the outstanding amount of the employment allowance, of qualifying payments made by the person; and HMRC must make the repayment.
- (7) The person’s application must be made in such form and manner, and contain such information, as HMRC may require.
- (8) The person’s application must be made before the end of the 4th tax year after the tax year mentioned in subsection (5).
- (9) In the application of section 102 of the Finance Act 2009 (repayment interest on sums to be paid by HMRC) in relation to a repayment under this section, the repayment interest start date is the date on which HMRC receive the person’s application.
- (10) A repayment under this section, and any interest in respect of it under section 102 of the Finance Act 2009, are to be paid out of the National Insurance Fund or the Northern Ireland National Insurance Fund.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- (8) If regulations cease to have effect as a result of subsection (7), that does not—

 - (b) prevent the making of new regulations to the same or a similar effect.
