EDUCATION, ENGLAND

The Diocese of Lichfield (Educational Endowments) (Brereton National School) Order 2014

Made - - - - 7th October 2014

Coming into force - - 14th October 2014

WHEREAS—

(1) the endowment of the educational foundation known as the Brereton National School in the County of Staffordshire (“the foundation”), comprised in a Deed dated 24th January 1846 and made between (1) the Right Honourable Charles Chetwynd Earl Talbot and the Honourable Henry John Talbot commonly called Viscount Ingestre and (2) the Minister and Chapelwardens of the Chaplery District of Brereton in the Parish of Rugeley (“the Deed”) has been shown to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State for Education (“the Secretary of State”) to be or to have been held in connection with the provision of religious education in accordance with the tenets of the Church of England at a voluntary school, the premises of which have ceased to be used for the purposes of such a school;

(2) the assets representing the said endowment of the foundation consist of £5,229.66 being the net proceeds of sale of the former teachers’ houses at numbers 52 and 54 Redbrook Lane comprised in the Deed and held in a Deposit Fund of the Central Board of Finance of the Church of England and any income derived from those assets before the coming into force of this Order;

(3) application for an order making new provision as to the use of the said endowment has been made to the Secretary of State by the Lichfield Diocesan Board of Education, which body appears to him to be the appropriate authority of the Church of England for the purpose;

(4) notice of the proposed order and of the right of persons interested to make representations on it has been given in the manner required by section 555(2) and (3) of the Education Act 1996(a);

(5) representations made on the proposed order by persons interested have been taken into account.

NOW, THEREFORE, THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR EDUCATION, in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 554 and 556 of the Education Act 1996(b) hereby makes the following Order—

Citation and commencement

1. This Order may be cited as the Diocese of Lichfield (Educational Endowments) (Brereton National School) Order 2014 and comes into force on 14th October 2014 (“the operative date”).

(a) 1996 c.56.

(b) Section 554 is amended by paragraph 168 of Schedule 30 to the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 (c.31) and section 556 is amended by paragraph 169 of that Schedule.

Interpretation

2. In this Order—

“the Diocesan Board” means the Lichfield Diocesan Board of Education; and

“trust assets” means the sum of £5,229.66 invested in a Deposit Fund of the Central Board of Finance of the Church of England representing the proceeds of sale of the premises of the former teachers’ houses at numbers 52 and 54 Redbrook Lane, together with any income derived therefrom (whether before or after the operative date).

Division of foundation and trust assets

3.—(1) The trust assets must be divided into two separate trust funds, namely—

- (a) the Brereton School Fund (“the School Fund”) comprising seventy two percent of the trust assets; and
- (b) the Brereton Religious Education Fund (“the Religious Education Fund”) comprising twenty eight percent of the trust assets.

(2) The apportionment of the trust assets required by virtue of this article shall be made in every case, after payment of any expenses of administration in accordance with article 5(1).

Trustee and vesting

4.—(1) The Diocesan Board is hereby appointed to be the trustee of—

- (a) the foundation; and
- (b) the School Fund established by article 3(1)(a).

(2) The Vicar and Churchwardens for the time being of the Parish of St Michael’s Brereton are hereby appointed to be the trustees of the Religious Education Fund established by article 3(1)(b).

(3) The trust assets shall be transferred to the Diocesan Board and all acts necessary for that purpose shall be done by any persons holding such funds.

Administration of foundation

5.—(1) After payment of any expenses of administration, the Diocesan Board shall account for that proportion of the capital and income of the trust assets of the foundation which represent respectively the Religious Education Fund, to the trustees of that fund.

(2) The trustees of the Religious Education Fund shall apply the income, and may apply the capital of that fund, for educational purposes related to the Parish of St Michael’s Brereton in connection with the provision of religious education in accordance with the tenets of the Church of England by means of a Sunday School or otherwise.

(3) The Diocesan Board shall hold the School Fund on the uniform statutory trusts.

(4) In this article “uniform statutory trusts” means the trusts set out in the Schedule to this Order (being the uniform statutory trusts set out in Schedule 36 to the Education Act 1996 as they apply in relation to the School Fund relevant trust assets).

Consolidation

6. The trust assets shall be consolidated with The Barchester Fund and that consolidated fund shall be known as The Barchester Fund.

Signed by the authority of the Secretary of State

Department for Education

SCHEDULE

Article 5(4)

The Uniform Statutory Trusts

1. In this Schedule—

“the area” means the Diocese of Lichfield;

“relevant school” means a voluntary school, a foundation school, an Academy school, an alternative provision Academy, a city technology college or a city college for the technology of the arts at which religious education in accordance with the tenets of the Church of England is or is to be provided; and

“relevant trust assets” means the School Fund.

2. The trustees may, after payment of any expenses incurred in connection with the administration of the trust, apply the capital and income of the relevant trust assets for any of the following purposes—

- (a) in or towards the purchase of a site for, or the erection, improvement or enlargement of, the premises of any relevant school in the area;
- (b) for the maintenance of any relevant school in the area;
- (c) in or towards the purchase of a site for, or the erection, improvement or enlargement of, the premises of a teacher’s house for use in connection with any relevant school in the area; and
- (d) for the maintenance of a teacher’s house for use in connection with any relevant school in the area.

3. The trustees may also, after payment of any expenses incurred in connection with the administration of the trust, apply the income of the relevant trust assets for any of the following purposes—

- (a) in or towards the provision of advice, guidance and resources (including materials) in connection with any matter related to the management of, or education provided at, any relevant school in the area;
- (b) the provision of services for the carrying out of any inspection of any relevant school in the area required by Part 1 of the Education Act 2005(a); and
- (c) to defray the cost of employing or engaging staff in connection with—
 - (i) the application of income of the relevant trust assets for either of the purposes referred to in sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) above, or
 - (ii) the application of capital or income of the relevant trust assets for any of the purposes referred to in paragraph 2 above.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order appoints the Lichfield Diocesan Board of Education as trustee of the foundation known as Brereton National School and makes new provision as to the use of the endowment of that foundation. It creates a separate foundation for the purpose of providing religious education in accordance with the doctrines of the Church of England in the Parish of St Michael’s Brereton.

The Order provides for the relevant trust assets to be consolidated with the fund known as The Barchester Fund and held on the uniform statutory trusts as set out in the Schedule to the Order (being the uniform statutory trusts set out in Schedule 36 to the Education Act 1996 as they apply to the relevant trust assets) for the benefit of Church of England voluntary schools, foundation
