Functions passing under article 3 or 4: supplemental

5.—(1) In this article “information function” means—

- (a) a function which is directed by article 3 to be exercisable by the Secretary of State concurrently with the Chancellor of the Duchy, or
- (b) a function which is transferred to the Chancellor of the Duchy by article 4.

(2) This Order does not affect the validity of anything done (or having effect as if done) by or in relation to the Secretary of State before the coming into force of this Order.

(3) There are transferred to the Chancellor of the Duchy all property, rights and liabilities to which the Secretary of State is entitled or subject at the coming into force of this Order in connection with an information function.

(4) Anything (including legal proceedings) which, at the coming into force of this Order, is in the process of being done by or in relation to the Secretary of State may, so far as it relates to an information function or anything transferred by paragraph (3), be continued by or in relation to the Chancellor of the Duchy.

(5) Anything done (or having effect as if done) by or in relation to the Secretary of State in connection with an information function or anything transferred by paragraph (3) has effect, so far as necessary for continuing its effect after the coming into force of this Order, as if done by or in relation to the Chancellor of the Duchy.

(6) Documents or forms printed for use in connection with an information function may be used in connection with the exercise of that function by the Chancellor of the Duchy even though they contain, or are to be read as containing, references to the Secretary of State; and for the purposes of the use of any such documents or forms in connection with the exercise of that function by the Chancellor of the Duchy, those references are to be read as references to the Chancellor of the Duchy.

(7) Any enactment or instrument passed or made before the coming into force of this Order has effect, so far as necessary for the purposes of or in consequence of article 3 or 4 or paragraph (3), as if references to the Secretary of State (and references which are to be read as references to the Secretary of State) were or included references to the Chancellor of the Duchy.

(8) In paragraphs (2) and (4) to (7)—

- (a) references to the Secretary of State are to be read as including references to the department or an officer of the Secretary of State, and
- (b) references to the Chancellor of the Duchy are to be read as including references to the Cabinet Office or an officer in that Office accordingly.

Transfer of functions from the Lord Chancellor to the Secretary of State

6.—(1) The following functions of the Lord Chancellor are transferred to the Secretary of State—

- (a) functions under a provision of the Public Records Act 1958(18) which is listed in paragraph (2),

(16) Section 47 was amended by section 107(3) of the Protection of Freedoms Act 2012 (c. 9).

(17) Section 53 was amended by S.I. 2003/1887, Sch. 2 and by S.I. 2007/1388, Sch. 1.

(18) 1958 c. 51.

- (b) functions under a provision of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 which is listed in paragraph (3),

 - (d) functions under sections 147(1), (4) and (5) and 148(1)(f) and (4)(a) of the Government of Wales Act 2006⁽²⁰⁾ (functions in connection with responsibility for Welsh public records).
- (2) The provisions of the Public Records Act 1958 referred to in paragraph (1)(a) are—
- (a) section 1(1), (2) and (3) (general responsibility for execution of Act and for public records),
 - (b) section 2(1), (4)(g) and (5) (functions in relation to the Public Record Office),
 - (c) section 3(4) and (5) to (7)⁽²¹⁾ (selection and preservation of public records),
 - (d) section 4(1) to (5) (appointment of places of deposit of public records),
 - (e) section 5(5)⁽²²⁾ (arrangements for inspection of public records in appointed places of deposit),
 - (f) section 6 (approval of destruction or other disposal of public records in certain circumstances), and
 - (g) paragraph 7(2) of Schedule 1 (determining whether records are public records for purposes of the Act).
- (3) The provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 referred to in paragraph (1)(b) are—
- (a) section 46(1), (3), (5) and (6)⁽²³⁾ (code of practice providing guidance in connection with keeping, management and destruction of records),
 - (b) section 65(1)(a) (requirement to be consulted about proposal to refuse request for information contained in a historical record), and
 - (c) section 66(5)(a) (requirement to be consulted about whether public interest exemption applies to information contained in a transferred public record).

Functions transferred by article 6: supplemental

- 7.—(1) In this article “public records function” means a function which is transferred by article 6.
- (2) This Order does not affect the validity of anything done (or having effect as if done) by or in relation to the Lord Chancellor before the coming into force of this Order.
- (3) There are transferred to the Secretary of State for Culture, Media and Sport all property, rights and liabilities to which the Lord Chancellor is entitled or subject at the coming into force of this Order in connection with a public records function.
- (4) Anything (including legal proceedings) which, at the coming into force of this Order, is in the process of being done by or in relation to the Lord Chancellor may, so far as it relates to a public records function or anything transferred by paragraph (3), be continued by or in relation to the Secretary of State for Culture, Media and Sport.
- (5) Anything done (or having effect as if done) by or in relation to the Lord Chancellor in connection with a public records function or anything transferred by paragraph (3) has effect, so far as necessary for continuing its effect after the coming into force of this Order, as if done by or in relation to the Secretary of State for Culture, Media and Sport.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order, made under the Ministers of the Crown Act 1975, transfers statutory functions relating to freedom of information from the Secretary of State to the Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster and provides for certain functions to be exercisable concurrently. It also transfers certain statutory functions relating to public records from the Lord Chancellor to the Secretary of State. The Order makes supplemental provision in connection with these transfers.

Article 3 provides for the Secretary of State’s functions under certain provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the “2000 Act”) to be exercisable concurrently with the Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster. These functions relate to the identification of public authorities subject to the 2000 Act and the power to amend or repeal any enactment which prohibits the disclosure of information held by a public authority.

Article 4 transfers to the Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster further functions of the Secretary of State under the 2000 Act.

Article 5 makes supplemental provision in connection with Articles 3 and 4.

Article 6 transfers to the Secretary of State certain functions of the Lord Chancellor under the Public Records Act 1958, the 2000 Act, the Environmental Information Regulations 2004 (S.I. 2004/3391) and the Government of Wales Act 2006. The Lord Chancellor retains responsibility under the Public Records Act 1958 for court records which are not in the Public Record Office (which is part of The National Archives) or another appointed place of deposit.

Article 7 makes supplemental provision in connection with Article 6.

Article 8 makes supplemental provision in relation to the transfer to the Secretary of State for Culture, Media and Sport of functions under the Data Protection Act 1998 that were previously entrusted to the Secretary of State for Justice.

Article 9 and the Schedule make consequential amendments to primary and secondary legislation.

Nothing in this Order alters the functions of the Welsh Ministers, the Scottish Ministers or the devolved authorities in Northern Ireland.
