EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

Section 29(3) of the Representation of the People Act 1983, as applied to Northern Ireland Assembly elections by the Northern Ireland Assembly (Elections) Order 2001, enables the Secretary of State to specify in an Order the overall maximum recoverable amount that the returning officer may recover in respect of services rendered or expenses incurred for or in connection with an Assembly election.

This Order specifies those amounts in respect of each constituency in Northern Ireland. Six members of the Assembly are returned for each of the (18) Parliamentary constituencies in Northern Ireland.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

At an uncontested election in any constituency the amount is £1750.00. At a contested election, the amount for each constituency is set out in the table in the Schedule to the Order.

This Order also revokes the Northern Ireland Assembly Elections (Returning Officer's Charges) Order 2011.

A full impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no impact on the private, voluntary or public sectors is foreseen.
