EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order amends certain Orders, which relate to the implementation of sanctions measures in the Overseas Territories, and makes specific provision relating to the enforcement of financial sanctions measures.

The Orders being amended contain provisions which impose requirements on certain financial institutions to provide information to the Governor of the relevant territory if they know or suspect that a customer is the subject of an asset freeze for the purposes of the relevant financial sanctions regime, or has committed certain offences under the relevant Order.

The amendments made by this Order extend these requirements, including offences associated with failure to comply, to certain businesses and professions, namely auditors, casinos, dealers in precious metals and stones, external accountants, independent legal professionals, real estate agents, tax advisors, and trust or company service providers.
