| A communication dated November 11, 1963, from the Administration of Malaysia stated: | | |
| (a) because the Malaysia Act of 1963 which came into force on September 16, 1963, changes the name of the Federation of Malaya to Malaysia, the term "Government of Malaysia" should be used instead of "Government of the Federation of Malaya" in connection with their membership of the International Telecommunication Union; | | |
| (b) because the same Act provided for the admission into the Federation of the States of Sabah (North Borneo), Sarawak and Singapore, the interests of Singapore, Sabah and Sarawak will henceforth be represented by the National Administration of the Government of Malaysia; | | |
| (c) the National Administration of the Government of Malaysia is the Telecommunication Department, Government of Malaysia. | | |
| Note— | | |
| By a communication dated December 24, 1963, the Government of the United Kingdom stated: | | |
